

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

CENTER FOR
THE STUDY OF WAR & SOCIETY

The Fourth Annual War and Society Lecture Series

War in the Modern Middle East

Friday, February 20, 2009 (LAB 102)

Joint Program with the International Security and Internal Safety Conference

“Canada’s Task Force Afghanistan 2007: Turning Point for Kandahar?”

Lee Windsor, Ph.D.

Gregg Centre for the Study of War & Society, University of New Brunswick, Canada

Thursday, February 26, 2009 (LAB 102)

“Early Days in Iraq: Baghdad and Beyond”

Major General Buford (Buff) Blount, U.S. Army (Ret.)

Former Commanding General, 3rd Infantry Division (Mechanized)

Thursday, March 5, 2009 (LAB 102)

Veterans’ Roundtable

“Multiple Perspectives from Multiple Fronts: Conflict in Afghanistan and Iraq”

Monday, March 23, 2009 (LAB 101)

“Lawlessness was the Law’: British Armed Forces, the Legal System and the Repression of the Arab Revolt in Palestine, 1936-1939”

Matthew Hughes, Ph.D.

Maj. Gen. Matthew C. Horner Chair in Military Theory, US Marine Corps University (2008-2010)
Reader and Senior Tutor, Brunel University, United Kingdom

All lectures will begin at 6:30PM and will be held in the Liberal Arts Building at The University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg. Parking is free after 5PM. For more information, contact Dr. Andrew Wiest at 601.266.5076 or andrew.wiest@usm.edu.