

presents

*The 11th Annual
Richard McCarthy
Lecture Series Lecture*

A Great War of Empire:
Britain, the Ottomans and the Campaign in the Middle East, 1914-1918

Jeffrey Grey, Ph.D.

*Professor of History,
University of New South Wales-Canberra, Australia
President, The Society for Military History*

Monday, April 13th, 6:00pm
Room 102 Liberal Arts Building

Dr. Grey is professor of history at University of New South Wales-Canberra and the current President of the Society for Military History. As a leading scholar examining Australian and comparative and international military history, Dr. Grey is the author or editor of over twenty well-respected books, including Australia's Vietnam War and the Oxford Companion to Australian Military History, as well as numerous articles, book chapters, and reviews. Previously, Professor Grey has served in many positions, including editor of the journal War & Society, parliamentarian and trustee for the Society of Military History, and the Major General Matthew C. Horner Chair of Military Theory at the Marine Corps University in Quantico, Virginia. Dr. Grey currently serves as a member of the Army History Research Grant Schemes Committee (Australian Army) and Army Historical Advisory Committee (Australian Army), and an adjunct senior research fellow at the Land Warfare Studies Centre (Australian Army). As President of the Society for Military History, he oversees the most important scholarly organization in the field of military history, with over 2500 members worldwide.

Dr. Grey's talk begins at 6:00 pm in Room 102 of the Liberal Arts Building of the Hattiesburg Campus of the University of Southern Mississippi. Parking is free on campus after 5:00 pm. For more information, contact Dr. Susannah Ural at Susannah.ural@usm.edu or (601) 266-5004.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND LETTERS

AA/EOE/ADA